

Birds Sighted at Freels Bend<sup>a</sup>

Freels Bend is an excellent wildlife site, providing a mosaic of fields, hedgerows, woodlots, and water, an increasingly rare combination in the region.

Common loon	Eastern wood-pewee <sup>c</sup>	Black-throated green warbler
Pied-billed grebe	Acadian flycatcher <sup>c</sup>	Yellow-throated warbler
Double-crested cormorant	Willow flycatcher <sup>c</sup>	Pine warbler
Great blue heron	Eastern phoebe	Prairie warbler <sup>c</sup>
Great egret <sup>b</sup>	Great crested flycatcher	Palm warbler
Green heron	Eastern kingbird	Worm-eating warbler <sup>c</sup>
Black-crowned night-heron	Purple martin <sup>c</sup>	Ovenbird
Canada goose	Tree swallow	Kentucky warbler <sup>c</sup>
Wood duck	Northern rough-winged swallow	Common yellowthroat
Black vulture	Cliff swallow	Hooded warbler <sup>c</sup>
Turkey vulture	Barn swallow	Yellow-breasted chat <sup>c</sup>
Osprey	Blue jay	Summer tanager <sup>c</sup>
Bald eagle <sup>b</sup>	American crow	Scarlet tanager <sup>c</sup>
Northern harrier <sup>b</sup>	Carolina chickadee <sup>c</sup>	Northern cardinal
Sharp-shinned hawk <sup>b</sup>	Tufted titmouse	Rose-breasted grosbeak
Cooper's hawk	White-breasted nuthatch	Blue grosbeak
Red-shouldered hawk	Carolina wren	Indigo bunting <sup>c</sup>
Red-tailed hawk	House wren	Dickcissel
Broad-winged hawk <sup>c</sup>	Blue-gray gnatcatcher	Eastern towhee <sup>c</sup>
American kestrel	Eastern bluebird	Chipping sparrow
Wild turkey	Wood thrush <sup>c</sup>	Field sparrow <sup>c</sup>
Northern bobwhite <sup>c</sup>	American robin	Grasshopper sparrow <sup>c</sup>
Killdeer	Gray catbird	Song sparrow
Rock pigeon	Northern mockingbird	White-throated sparrow
Mourning dove	Brown thrasher <sup>c</sup>	White-crowned sparrow
Yellow-billed cuckoo	Cedar waxwing	Bobolink
Chimney swift <sup>c</sup>	Loggerhead shrike <sup>b,c,d</sup>	Red-winged blackbird
Ruby-throated hummingbird	European starling	Eastern meadowlark <sup>c</sup>
Belted kingfisher <sup>c</sup>	White-eyed vireo	Common grackle
Red-bellied woodpecker	Blue-headed vireo	Brown-headed cowbird
Yellow-bellied sapsucker <sup>b,d</sup>	Yellow-throated vireo <sup>c</sup>	Orchard oriole
Downy woodpecker <sup>c</sup>	Red-eyed vireo	Baltimore oriole
Hairy woodpecker	Northern parula	House finch
Northern flicker <sup>c</sup>	Yellow warbler	American goldfinch
Pileated woodpecker	Yellow-rumped warbler	House sparrow
Olive-sided flycatcher <sup>b,c</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Updated: 4/2008

<sup>b</sup> Species listed by the state as in-need-of-management

<sup>c</sup> Birds designated by Partners in Flight as species of regional importance

<sup>d</sup> Species federally listed as of management concern